Summary / dictionary of terms used in the notebook.

Waterfall:

> Project management methodology that progresses trough phases (design, development, testing etc.) in an ordered and linear fashion.

Agile:

> A flexible project management methodology where progress is more adaptive and iterative, in comparison to the stricter methods of waterfall.

Lean:

> Methodology that focuses on cutting waste and improving efficiency trough careful evaluation of customer requirements and resource management

Scrum:

> A framework for managing Agile projects trough iterative sprints.

WBS (Work Breakdown Structure):

> A breakdown of the components of a project into smaller organized tasks.

GANTT:

> A visual representation of the phases of a project on a timeline.